A Year That STANDS OUT

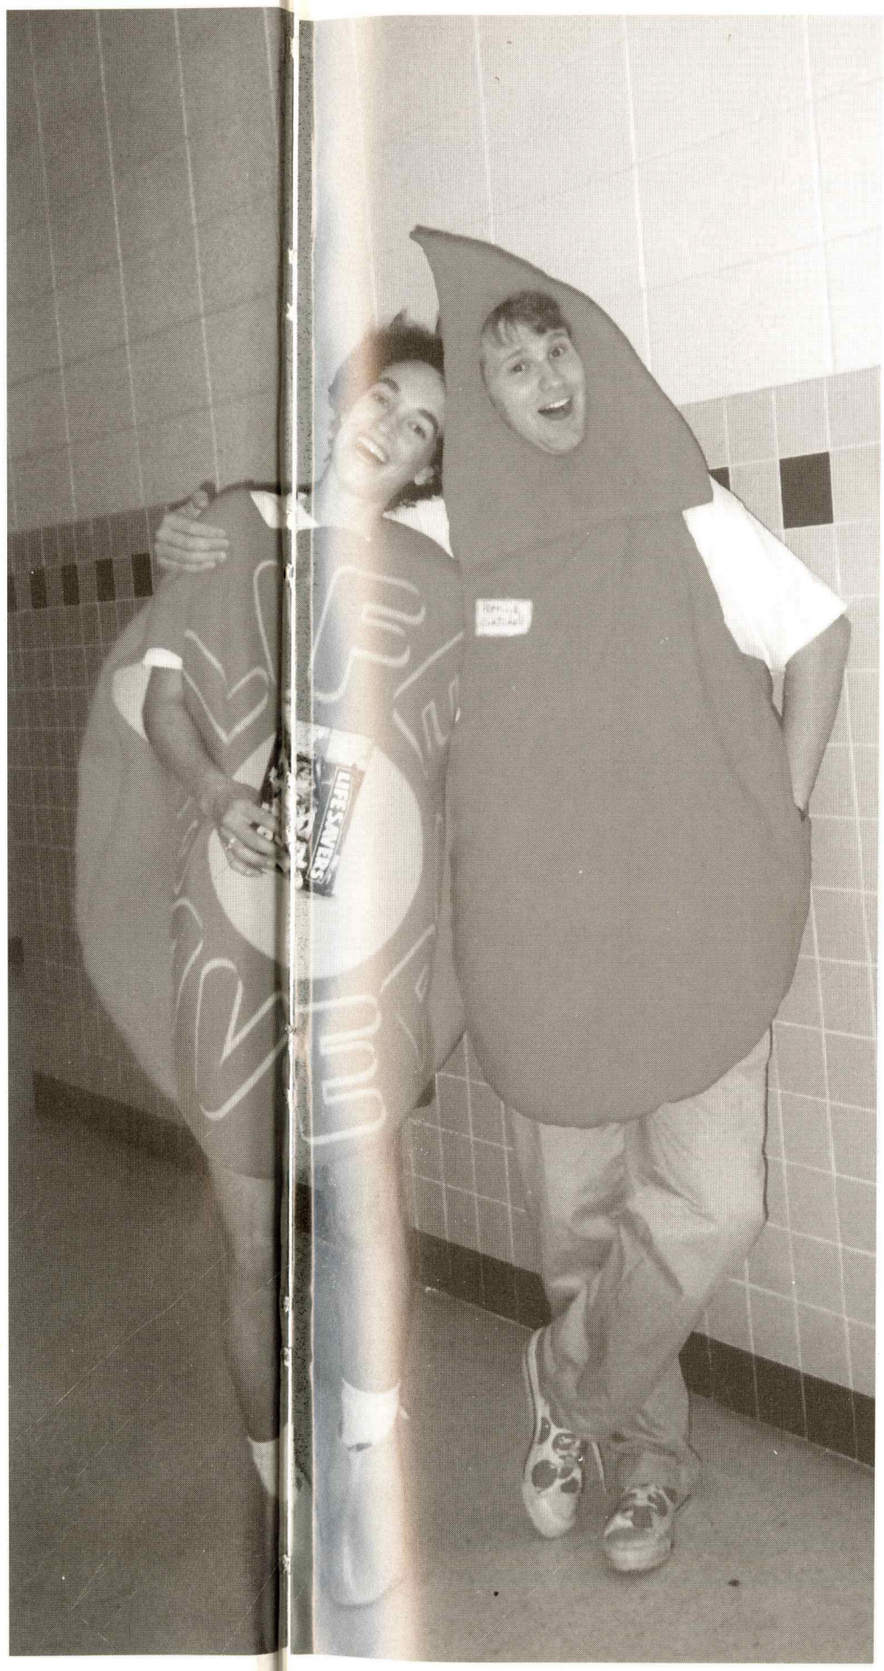
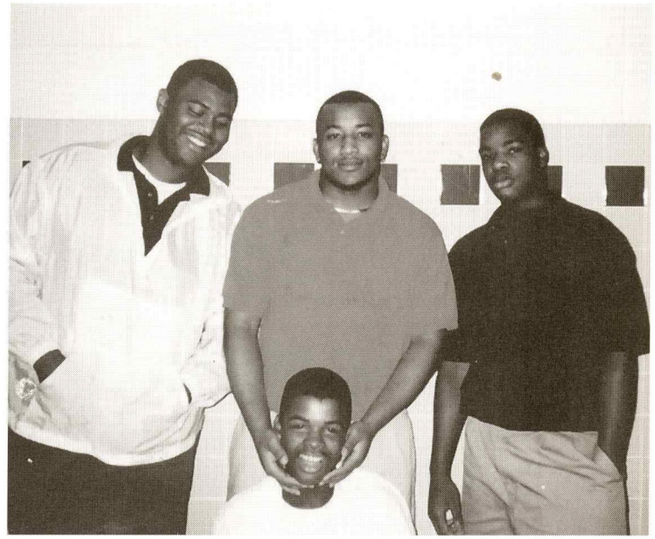
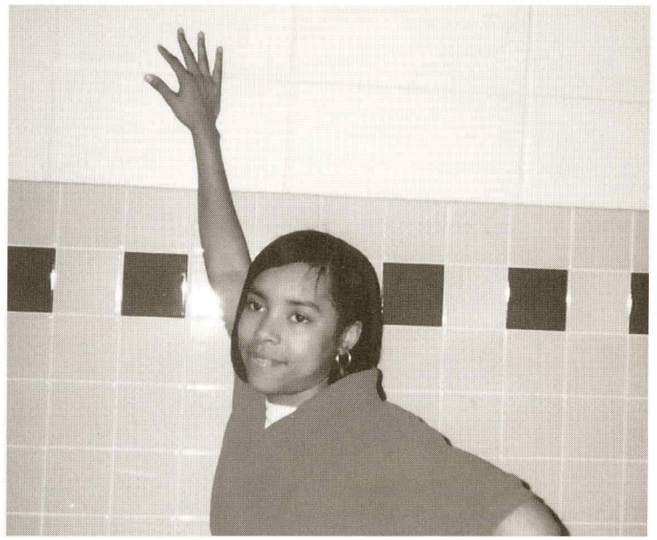
Monday, August 10, dawns and you sleepily rise from your peaceful slumber and face the reality of a new school year. Those lazy days of summer are over. The sleepy numbness erodes into a frantic realization that the 1998-99 school year is very different from any of the previous years. The time spent staring into your closet deciding what to wear has been narrowed to an instant decision between khaki, navy, plaid, red, or white. Finally, you grab a polo, some pants, or a skirt, and try to reconcile yourself to your loss of individuality. When you arrive at school, an eerie feeling overcomes you as you look across the campus of P.H.S. The comfortable blue jeans and sporty athletic shoes have been replaced by uniforms. You search frantically for your friends among the sea of clones. The first bell of the school day rings, and the students file through the door to their first block. The following statements and questions may be heard from administrators and teachers as you pass through the hallway: Tuck that shirt in. Where's your belt? Your shorts are too short. That shirt is maroon, not red. Most students gladly comply for fear of a two-day suspension. As you reach your first block, you prepare yourself for this ninety-minute class and continuously check your watch for what seems like an eternity before the bell rings. Unfortunately, the second block only seems to extend longer than the preceding one. Anxiously, you anticipate the familiarity of lunch. You and your friends stake claim at your table that will probably be yours for the entire year. The fifteen-minute wait in line and lack of sufficient time to eat are soundly reassuring that some things this year will be the same. The third and fourth block mimic the earlier portion of the day, and you leave the halls of P.H.S. with the hope that you can learn to accept the things you cannot change. Unanimously, you and your peers agree that this year STANDS OUT from any other year.







People of Pascagoula Out Stand Georges

The threat of a hurricane is not uncommon on the Gulf Coast from June to November. But the reality of such a devastating storm was harder to grasp in the late summer of 1998. A hurricane had not swept through Pascagoula in 13 years. It proved a very unlucky number for us. Hurricane Georges blew through Cuba and skirted the Florida Keys killing people and destroying millions of dollars worth of property. Many communities up and down the coast braced themselves for this potentially powerful storm. Forecasters predicted Georges would make landfall around New Orleans; but on Sunday night, he made a northern turn. The eye hit Ocean Springs and Biloxi. Many Pascagoula High School students and their families stayed at home and braced themselves. For many students, this was their first hurricane. While some say they slept through the storm, many huddled in hallways and listened to one of the few stations they could pick up on a battery-powered radio. As morning dawned on September 28, the winds and rain continued to wreak havoc on our hometown. After the storm finally moved on, families curiously looked outside their houses and assessed the damage. Many trees had fallen and some roofs were blown away. Many houses near the beach received flood damage up to five feet. For the beginning of the week, most people stayed in their houses because of mandatory orders and a concern for safety. The National Guard took over town security and the residents started to clean up. Almost the whole town was powerless and a hot meal was in desperate demand. Traffic lights were out and intersections were very dangerous. Although Georges is probably the worst disaster Pascagoula has seen in this decade, a positive side prevailed. The people of our town came together to help each other. There was an overwhelming response of relief efforts and neighbors helped each other out. Students were out of school for a week while they tried to return their lives back to normal. Although many of the physical wounds of the hurricane have healed, Hurricane Georges will not be forgotten by the residents of Pascagoula.

Hurricane Georges

The roof of the WLOX news station was blown into Market Street during a tornado.

After winds exceeding 100 miles per hour blew through town, styrofoam cups in the Central Elementary School fence remained intact.

Rocks and pieces of concrete were strewn all over the Point.

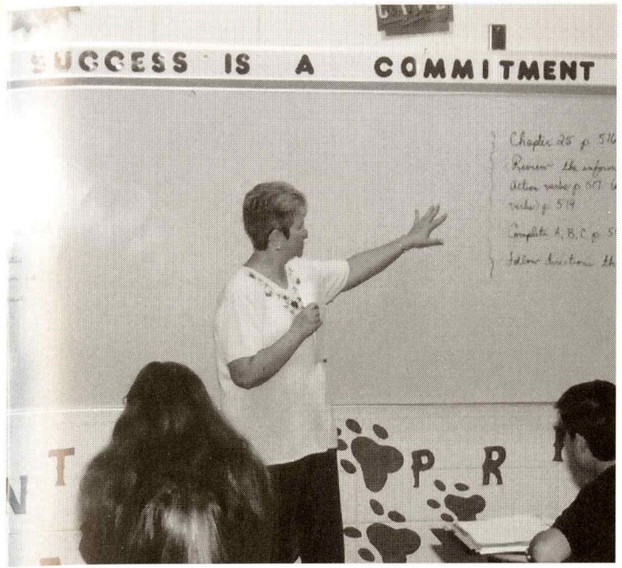
Many windows of Hancock Bank on Magnolia Street were cracked and busted.

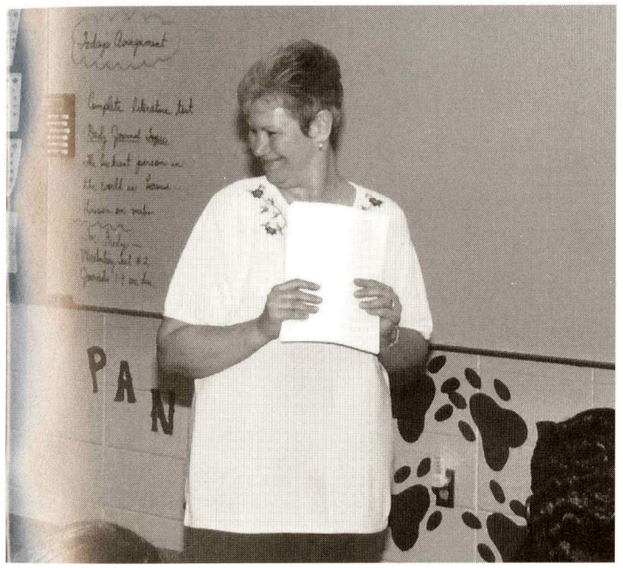
People waited in long lines at Jerry Lee's for bread, water, and ice.

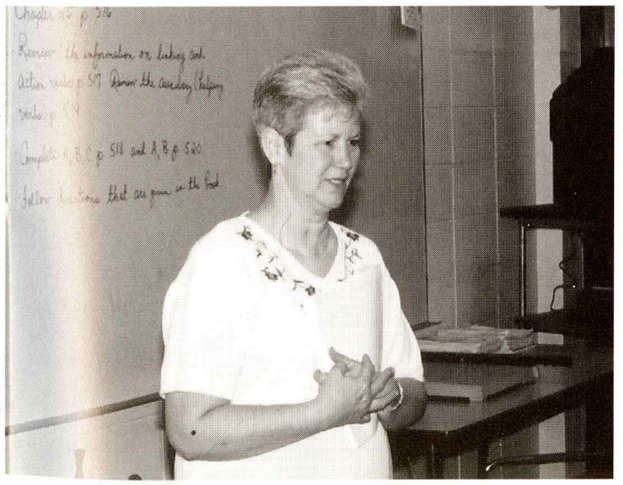
OUTSTANDING FACULTY

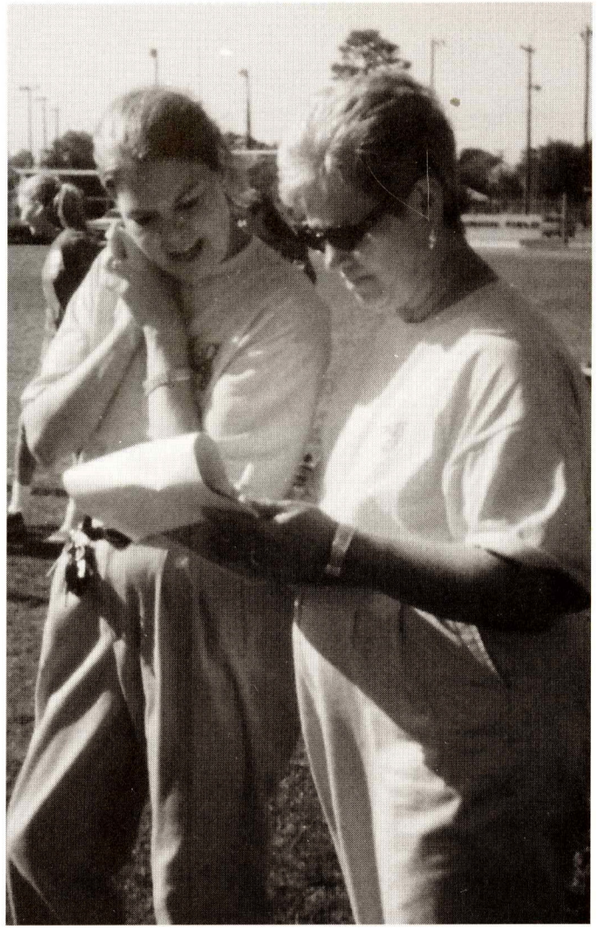
Teacher Dedication

MRS. RACHEL HOGUE









Mrs. Rachel Hogue is a constant inspiration to her students and her colleagues. Amy Tucker, one of her students, says, "She's touched my life in ways she'll never know. Some people may not believe in angels, but this teacher has truly been an angel to me and to many others over the years." Mrs. Hogue graduated from Delta State University with a bachelor of science in education degree. She started her career in the classroom 31 years ago in Rolling Fork, MS. In 1987, she received a master's degree in English. She came to PHS three years ago. She devotes a lot of time to our student council and she sponsors the sophomore class. Mrs. Hogue has dedicated more than 30 years to her students — so now we in turn dedicate our yearbook to her.

SMART

My dad gave me one dollar bill
'Cause I'm his smartest son,
And I swapped it for two shiny quarters
'Cause two is more than one!

And then I took the quarters
And traded them to Lou
For three dimes — I guess he don't know
That three is more than two!

Just then, along came old blind Bates
And just 'cause he can't see
He gave me four nickels for my three dimes
And four is more than three!

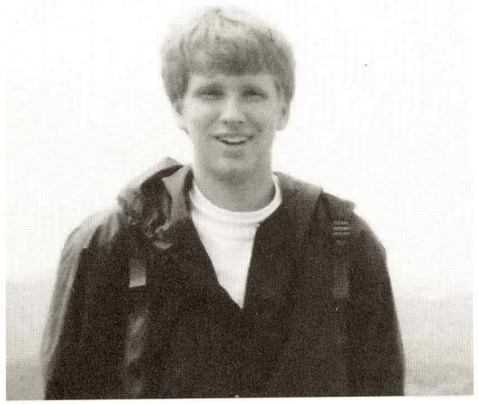
And I took the nickels to Hiram Coombs
Down at the seed-feed store
And the fool gave me five pennies for them,
And five is more than four!

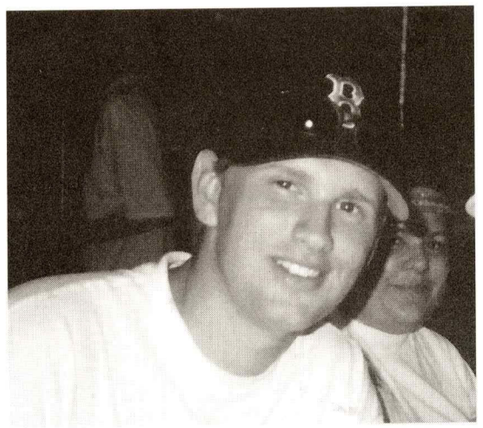
And then I went and showed my dad,
And he got red in the cheeks
And closed his eyes and shook his head —
Too proud of me to speak!

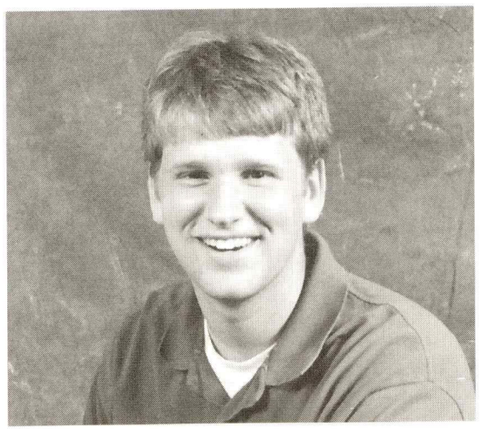
— Shel Silverstein

MR. PHS

Patrick Gatchell



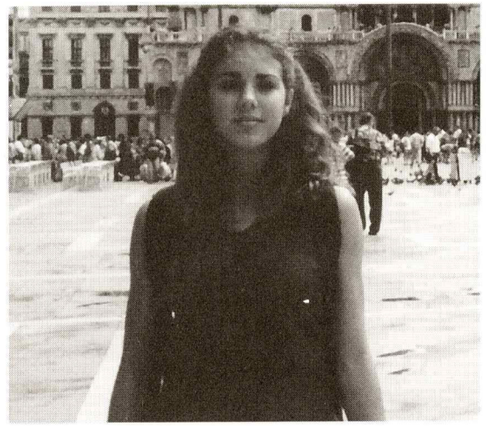


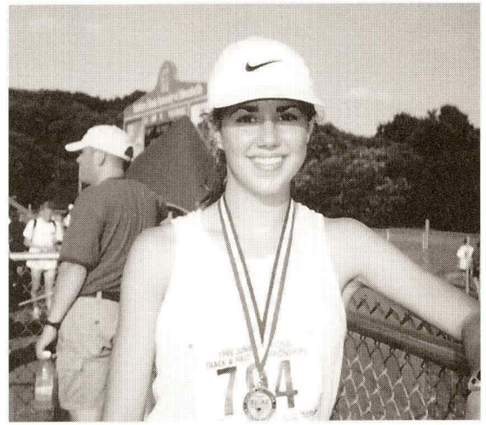


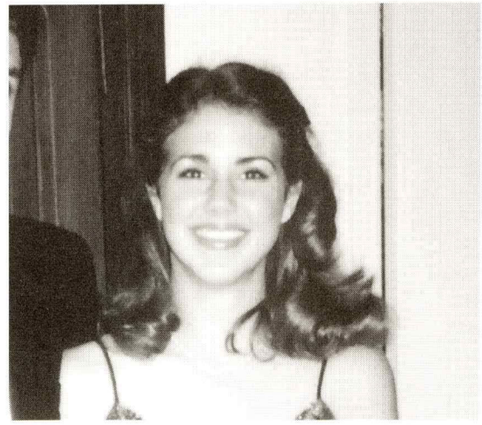
Patrick is well-liked by his classmates, teachers and just about anyone else who knows him. WLOX-TV featured Patrick on its Person of the Week segment in May of this year. He was a counsellor at Boys State and he delivered the closing prayer at graduation. It's his outstanding leadership qualities and his attractive personality that earned Patrick the title of Mr. PHS.

MISS PHS

Erin Sims







Erin is a remarkable young woman. She's smart; she's fast; and she's nice. Erin graduated fifth in the senior class. She won the state championship titles in cross country and track. And she was voted Homecoming Queen. Erin is dedicated to being the best all-around person she can be... and people notice that. It's the genuine way Erin goes about doing everything in her life that earned her the title of Miss PHS.

SPIRIT WEEK

This year's Spirit Week followed the theme "Stay Tuned to PHS." For each day of the week, students dressed according to the day's chosen movie title. Throughout the week, each class worked diligently on their class floats. They put many hours into preparing for the Homecoming parade at the end of the week. The parade consisted of all of the class displays, the Homecoming maids and various club floats. During the parade, the displays were judged... and the sophomores came out on top. (...much to the seniors' dismay!)

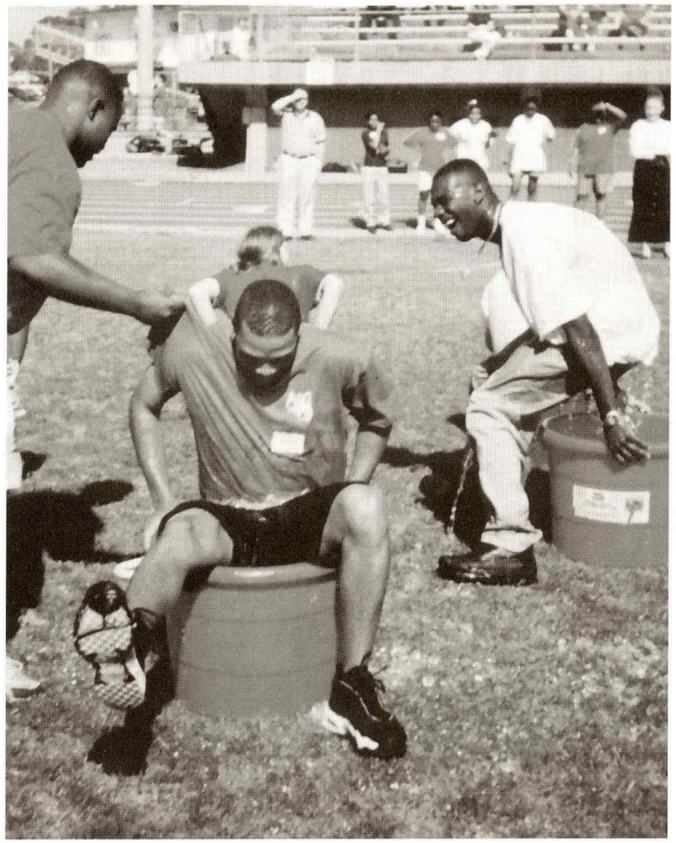
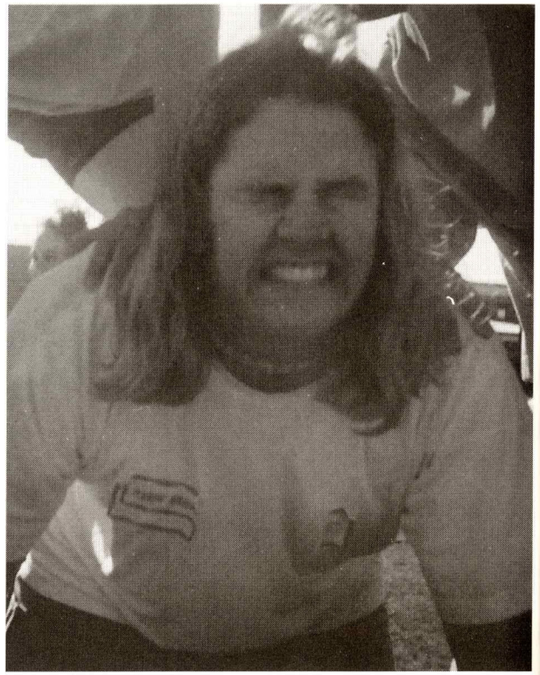
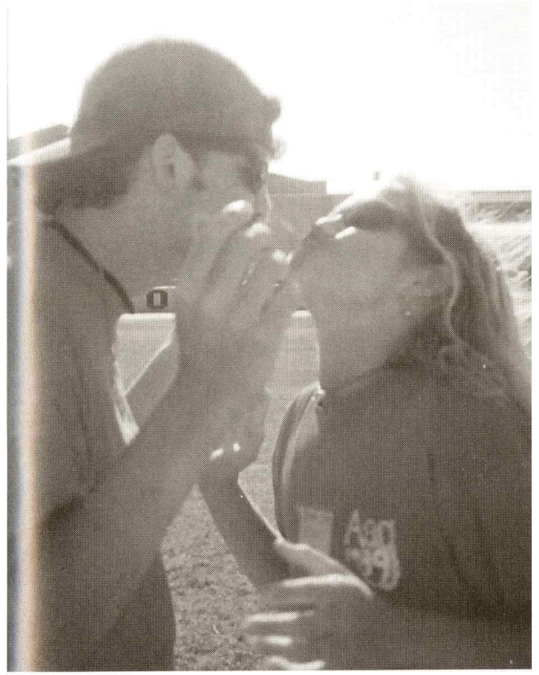
Almost Anything GOES







The seniors dominated this year's Almost Anything Goes event. But the underclassmen did manage to win a few events. Favorite competitions included the ice cream scoop drop, the human pyramid, musical ice buckets and the four-legged race. The student council sponsors this popular spring activity every year.

The senior class played an integral part during the 1998-99 school year. They were responsible for the adoption of an exemption policy for classes that end at Christmas because of the new four by four schedule. They organized a picture to include all the seniors currently attending Pascagoula High School. The senior class also took part in many other activities ranging from community service to the Homecoming festivities. Over all this has been a very monumental year for the class of 1999.

PHS BAND

The Pascagoula High School Band is a very diligent and hard working group. The band started the year with band camp preparing for contest. On October 17, 1998, the band competed in the Gulf Coast Marching Festival where they received straight superiors for the 19th consecutive year. The band also performed at the annual Christmas Concert. From there, they divided into two separate bands: concert and symphonic. The band performed at the annual spring concert with other bands from the entire school district. All in all, the band works hard, but there are many times to relax and have fun. The 1998-1999 Panther Band has made my senior year great. Thanks for all the memories. — '99 Ryan Reiser

The Panther Pen

Being a member of the PHS newspaper staff requires a lot of hard work and dedication along with the creativity to cover interesting stories. Meeting deadlines and arranging articles are major priorities of the staff. Members must be able to write, edit, type, and create layouts and think of ideas for stories. This class is an opportunity for students to display their talents while creating an enjoyable finished product for everyone at PHS. The 98-99 Panther Pen staff has proven to many others what we at PHS already know. This year's staff is one of the best in Mississippi and has the awards to prove it. During a competition sponsored by the Southern Mississippi Scholastic Journalism Association, the Panther Pen Staff won six awards. They were as follows: third place Best Overall Newspaper, first place Best Editorial Cartoon, second place Best Newspaper Ad, third place Best Editorial, third place Best One Page Layout and third place Best Ad Smaller than 1/2 Page.

This year's school newscast took on a whole new look. The news team chose a new name, Today in 12, and built a new set. The twelve-minute newscast covered stories from new internet hookups at PHS to features on new teachers. Today in 12 also tackled some special projects: a blood drive promotion and a tribute to the senior class. The students get an opportunity to produce, report, videotape and anchor a newscast. The show airs during the Channel One time so the whole school gets to see it.

Lauren Wilkerson and Paige Roberts discuss an upcoming news show.

Every Monday morning at 7:30, this dedicated group of students meets in Mrs. Belk's room to plan ways to make the school a more successful, enjoyable environment. The council is made up of nine elected members from each grade. This year's group of students has been extremely involved with both community and school related activities. Throughout the year, the student council has decorated the halls with posters to boost school spirit; and October was full of Homecoming plans for the parade and Spirit Week. Around Thanksgiving, the Student Council participated in a canned food scavenger hunt and collected more than 500 cans of food for charity. This year's group sponsored two teacher breakfasts and and a teacher Christmas party. This year's semi-annual blood drives surpassed many expectations. Pascagoula High School ranked seventh highest supplier of blood along the Gulf Coast. Thanks to the student council, Almost Anything Goes was a great success. Participation was at its highest and the events were some of the best-liked ever. Overall, this year has been fun-filled and record-breaking. The student council helped make this one of the best years at Pascagoula High School.

NHS

The National Honor Society is a club of highly accelerated students in academics. Membership contains students from the sophomore, junior and senior classes. This year, NHS has been involved in many activities. The members had their annual induction ceremony in January. They visited the children's ward of the hospital, as well as adopting an angel for Christmas. They have participated in activities showing appreciation for teachers and have also worked to beautify the school campus.

Key Club is a service organization represented by the Kiwanis Club of Pascagoula. Throughout the year, the members of Key Club participated in many activities for the school and community. This year, Key Club sponsored a float in the Homecoming parade. This float is known for its dancing and loud music. Some other projects included in this year's agenda were the Kiwanis Club auction and a womanless beauty pageant. Thanks to Mr. West, Mrs. Brogdan and all of the members, this year turned out to be a successful and enjoyable one for the club.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes is not only for athletes anymore. This club includes all Christian students. FCA's biggest activity is "See You at the Pole". "See You at the Pole" was a big success this year. Dozens of students joined hands at the flagpole for morning prayer during the national event in September.

OFFICERS: Jonathan Strickler, Sarah Stevens, Brooke James

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club gives students an opportunity to learn more about the culture and customs of Germany. It also allows students to better their language skills. The club's favorite activity each year is an exchange program. Club members host German students for two weeks in the spring; and then they go to Germany during the summer. Club Sponsor Helga Arrington says she always enjoys playing tour guide in her homeland. She also says it's an invaluable experience for her students to visit the country about which they study in school.

Teen Connection is a club for students who advocate a drug-free school, home, community and nation. It is affiliated with SADD, MADD and other drug prevention clubs. Teen Connection provides its members a chance to help the community, to promote drug-free living and to experience a heightened sense of self-esteem. Teen Connection members sponsor Red Ribbon Week; and they promote drug awareness in the community. They participate in a rally sponsored by the Highway Patrol in Jackson every year. Last year, Teen Connection members provided fruit baskets to nursing home patients in Pascagoula for Thanksgiving. Teen Connection is sponsored by Mrs. Linda Sumlin and Mrs. Gwen Purnell.

Scholar's Bowl, also known as Quiz Bowl, is an academic competition that pits PHS students against students from other Gulf Coast high schools in a series of matches each year. Students answer toss-up questions from a broad range of subjects to score points. Each year, ten to twelve teams from Hancock, Harrison, and Jackson Counties compete for a chance to make it to the championship match, which is televised on WLOX-TV. This year, not only did the Scholar's Bowl team make it to the final match, they defeated Ocean Springs for the championship. Mr. Smith claims that this team is the best he has had in ten years.

T.S.A.

The Technology Student Association, known as TSA, is a national organization for students presently enrolled in, or who have completed, a technology education program. TSA helps to better prepare students for the challenges of today's new technical world.

TSA's mission is to prepare its members for the challenges of the dynamic world by the promotion of technological literacy, leadership, and problem solving which results in opportunity and personal growth.

Jr. Civitan is a community and school service organization sponsored by Civitan International. Developing responsibility and contributing to school and community awareness are two main goals of the club. Various projects in the club include participation with clients of Singing River Industries, projects for the Community Work Center and Domestic Violence Center. Some activities completed during the year were kits for the Children's Ward, campus beautification, making candy turkeys for the residents of the Adult Detention Center, and purchasing and decorating the school Christmas tree.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America

VICA, Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, is a club for trade, industrial, and technical students. Every year VICA members enjoy participating in the Homecoming parade, community service projects during Thanksgiving and Christmas, a fundraiser and an end-of-school cookout that has become a tradition. However, the district, state, and national competitions sponsored by state and national VICA provide the most excitement and the greatest challenge to members. Pascagoula/Gautier VICA has provided state leadership for several years.

HOSA , or Health Occupational Students of America, is made up of students who are enrolled in the Health Cluster program at the VO-TECH. HOSA is a great opportunity for students to learn about the medical field. This year the club has participated in many community related activities and also in competitions. They had a Miss HOSA pageant, which donated the proceeds to the Make-a-Wish Foundation, and participated in a very successful canned food drive. Members learn different aspects of many medical fields. HOSA members have a lot of fun while learning at the same time.

FBLA is the club to be in if you're interested in business or leadership... or maybe one day becoming a business leader! FBLA participates in lots of activities and everyone has tons of fun. Fund raisers, homecoming floats, charity benefits and competitions are just a few of the things that keep FBLA members busy. Every year, members attend leadership conferences in places like Atlanta and Disney World. At these conferences you can learn to become a better leader while getting to know the more than 3,000 Southern District members in FBLA. FBLA is an experience you don't want to miss.

FOOTBALL

Going for the endzone

Our 1998 football season wasn't all we hoped it would be, but out team played its best and lost several games by a very close score. As the saying goes, 'Just wait until next year.' The stands were full of parents, students and the community cheering our team. That in itself makes the football team feel supported no matter the end result.

CHEERLEADERS
STAND OUT

This summer the Pascagoula High School cheerleading squad attended the 1998 NCA camp at Mississippi State University. The squad spent many long, hard hours preparing for the camp. The girls stuck together and their hard work paid off. They received all superior ribbons and two spirit sticks. Among these successes, Adrianne Samples, Dallas Conerly, and Jenna Torjeson were chosen as NCA All-American cheerleaders. The camp was an unforgettable experience for the whole squad.

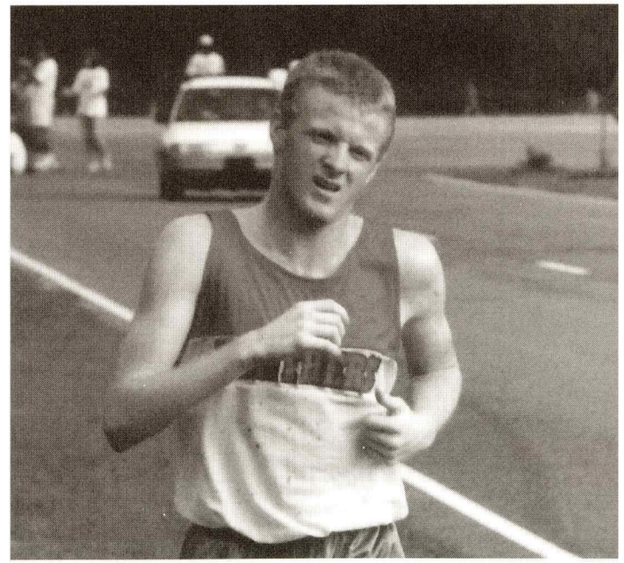
The PHS Cross Country team had a strong season this year. Erin Sims went undefeated and captured the state title. She also set two course records. Mike McKissack won district and state. Tommy Miller won all-state and all-district. The boys improved their state ranking from 9th to 6th. Even though the girls didn't fair as well, dropping from 10th to 13th, this years cross country team had a good year. Coach Burgo is always looking for new runners.



Mike McKissick keeps up his stamina as he comes down toward the finish line.

This year, the Fast Pitch Softball team had a great season. These girls worked hard together to make this one of the most successful seasons so far. Our girls worked extra hard in hopes of capturing the High School State Title... something well within their reach. After capturing the South State Title, the girls played Clinton in hopes of taking home the title of State Champions. Although our girls fell short of defeating Clinton, the season was considered a huge success. The team gave students, faculty, and residents of Pascagoula a renewed sense of pride. Because this year's team was fairly young, it looks like we have many more great seasons ahead of us.

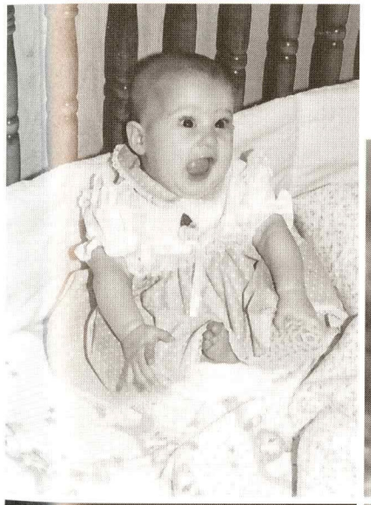
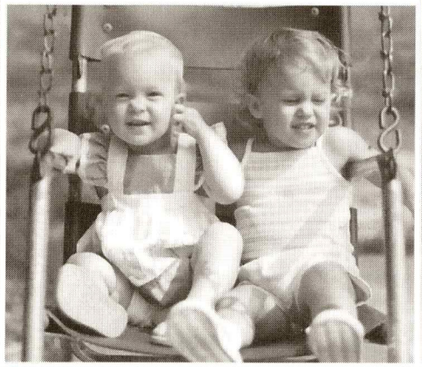
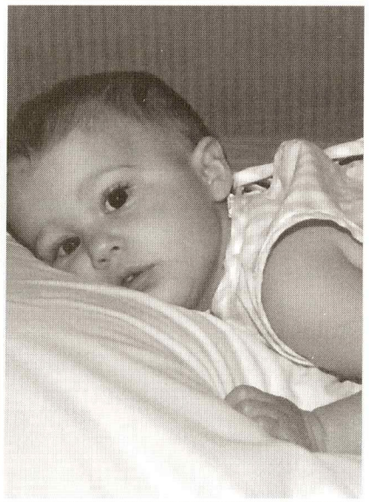
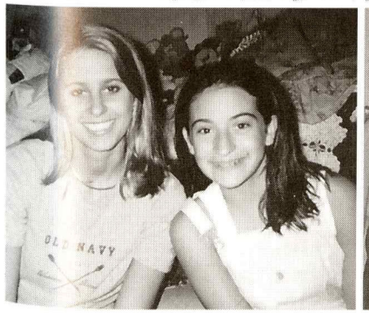
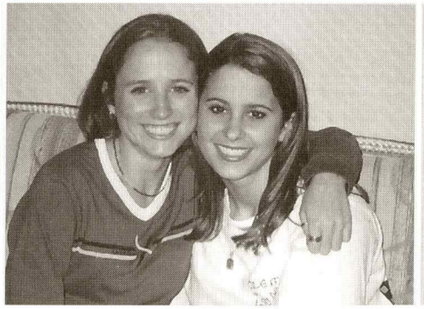
Congratulations!
We love you!
Mama, Rick and Jessica



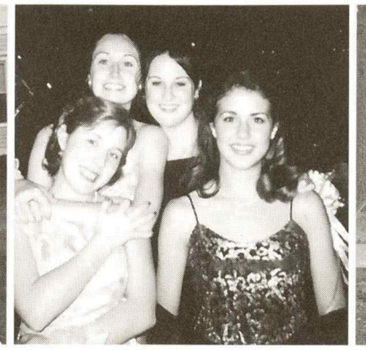


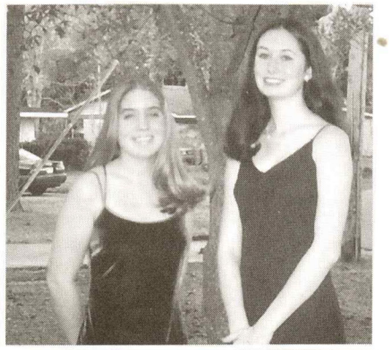




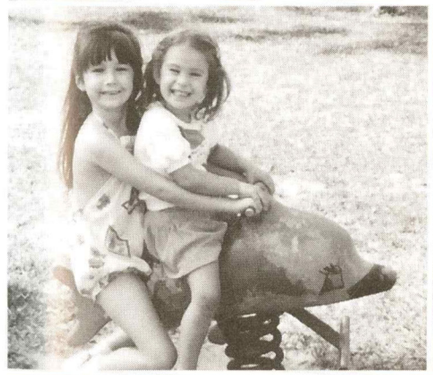


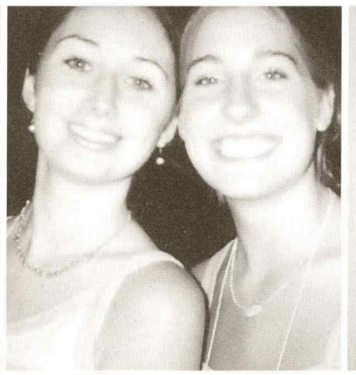
Jenne & Elizabeth:
It takes a lot of understanding, time and trust to gain a close friendship with someone. As you approach a time in your life of complete uncertainty, being family and best friends is your most precious asset. Discover what it is that burns inside and keeps you going, then nurture it. Enjoy the miracle of each new day by doing some things now and experiencing the unique delight of waiting and planning for others. Take an active part in whatever life brings and you will discover the special charm that will endear it to you. And remember always that you are not alone ... you have your family, your friends and your guardian angels to look after you!
We love you very much!
"The Family"

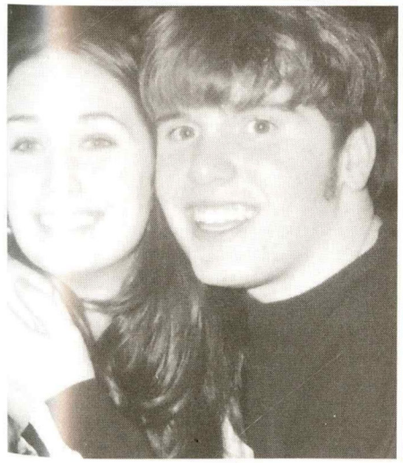


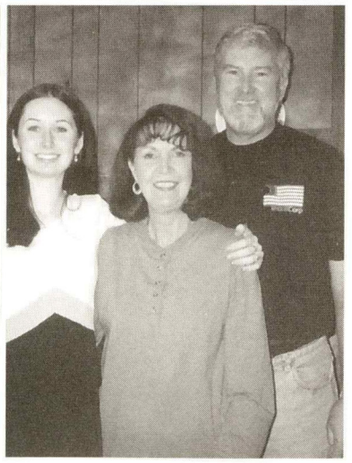


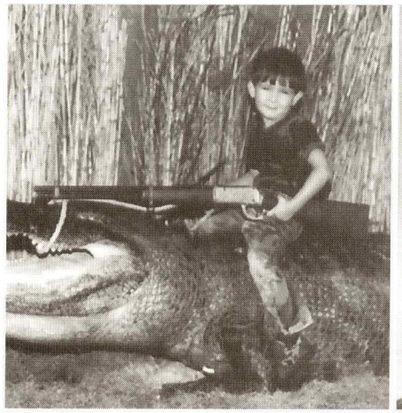
Ashley,
Graduation from high school is the first of the many meaningful steps on the ladder of life. Climb as high as you can. You will always be our favorite kid.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Grammie, and your guardian angel G-Daddy











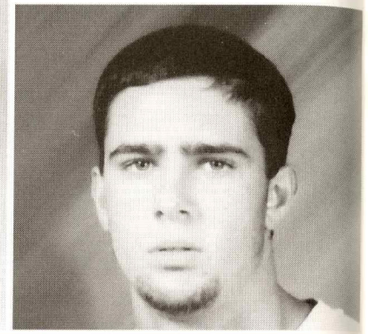
Will Hunter

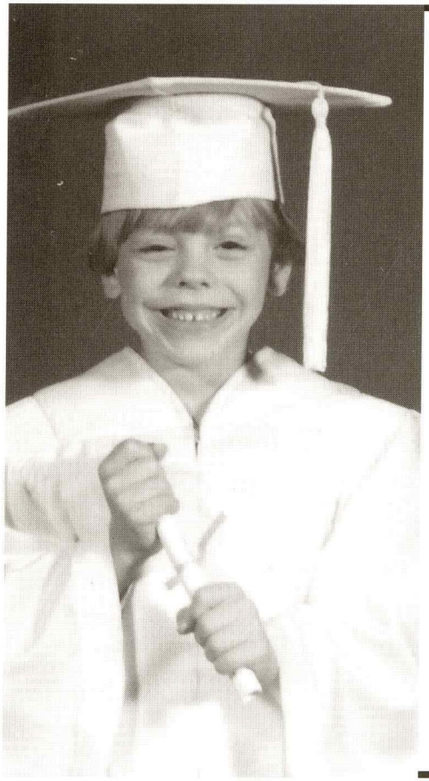
CONGRATULATIONS !!!!!!!!

We are very proud of you !!!
Keep up the good work !!!

We Love You !!!

Mom, Dad, Paw-Paw and Maw-Maw May, Maw-Maw Hunter, Aunt Annie Margaret, Uncle Joe, Robyn and David, Aunt Debra, Uncle Jimmy, Steven, and Jesse, Aunt Ruby, Aunt Lyn, Uncle Eric, and Bradley, Aunt Paige, Uncle Keith, Elizabeth, Thomas, and Joseph





Kevin,

It doesn't seem like twelve years have passed since you graduated from kindergarten. You have been our "performer" your whole life and we have loved every minute of it. We are very proud of the young man that you have become. You have stood up for what you believe, which has not always been the easy thing to do. As you graduate from high school, our prayer is that you will seek God's will for your life. He has given you many talents and abilities, and with Him, you will succeed!

We love you very much!
Mama & Daddy
P.S. Keep playin' those drums!

JIM SPENCER

"IF YOU CAN FILL THE UNFORGIVING MINUTE
WITH SIXTY SECONDS' WORTH OF DISTANCE RUN-
YOURS IS THE EARTH AND EVERYTHING THAT'S IN IT,
AND - WHICH IS MORE - YOU'LL BE A MAN, MY SON!"

FROM KINDERGARTEN TO NOW, YOU HAVE COME A LONG WAY.
WE ARE PROUD OF THE MAN YOU HAVE BECOME.

LOVE,
MOM AND DAD

Daniel,
Congratualtions on your many accomplishments. We're very proud of you.

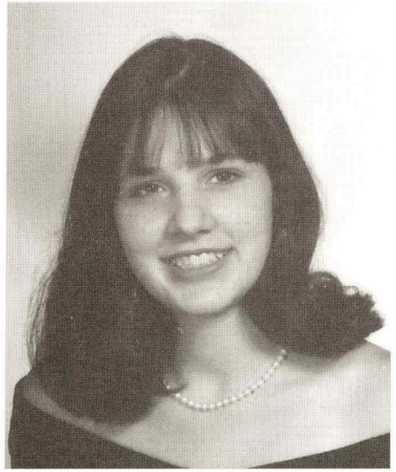
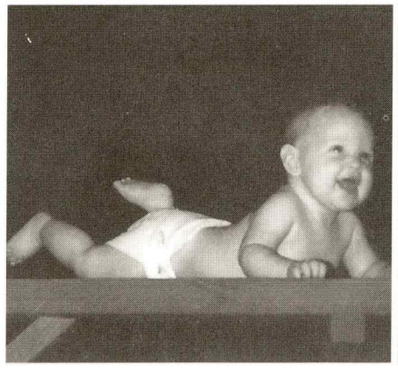
Life is Full of

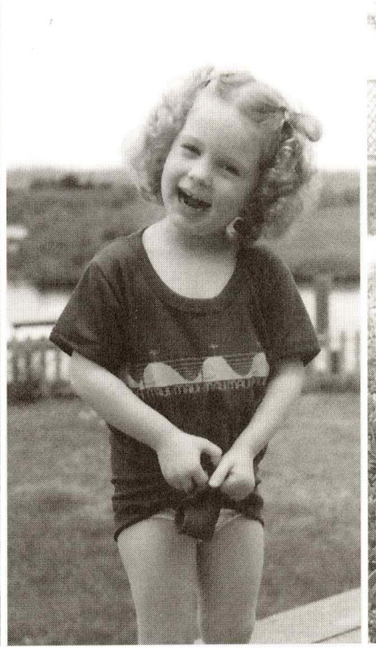


Precious Moments

Love,

Mom, Dad, Angela, Therese, Albert, Patrick, Kimberly, Grandma and Grandpa





Dear Lindsay,

Remember hiding in the basket of stuffed animals until we thought you were lost? How about being Mom's little helper at RCS, the graffiti on the walls of your bedroom in the cabana and making the most of your role as "bratty little sister"? These are just a few memories of the years that have passed too quickly as you've grown from the baby of the family to the poised and talented young woman you are today. We expect great things as you make your way in life — just be safe, be tolerant of others, and always learn from the inevitable mistakes along the way.

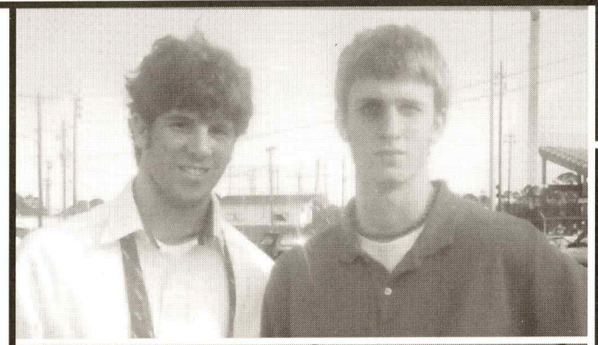
We love you,
Mom & Dad
Brice & Meredith

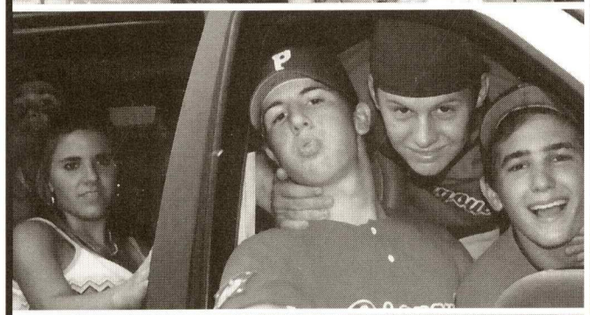
Kristin & Shane Baber

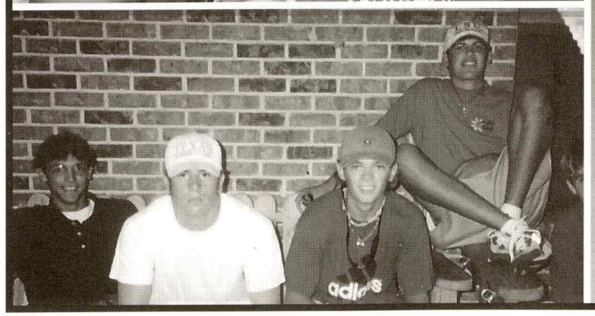
We will miss you
and our extended family.

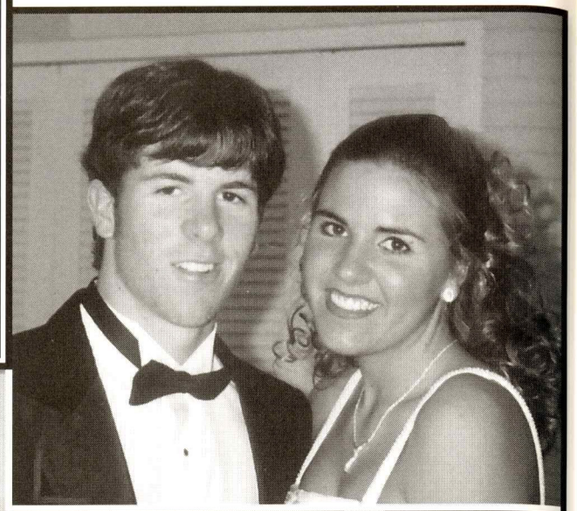
Our wish for your future-
great happiness.

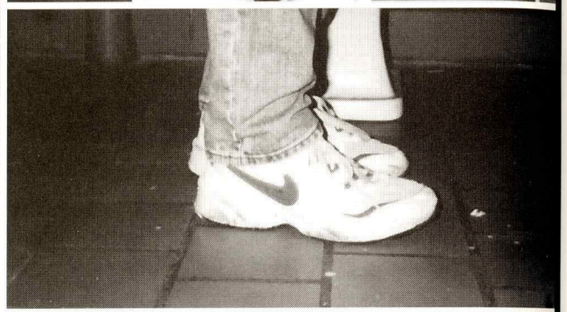
Much, much love,
Mom & Shannon

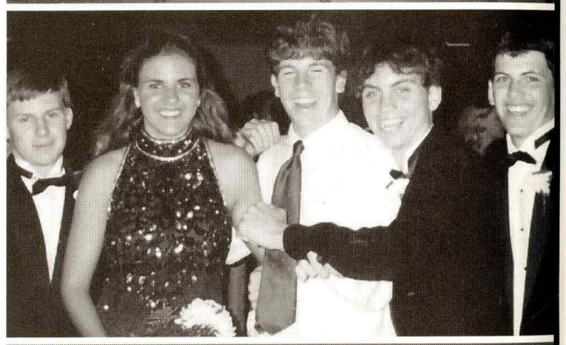


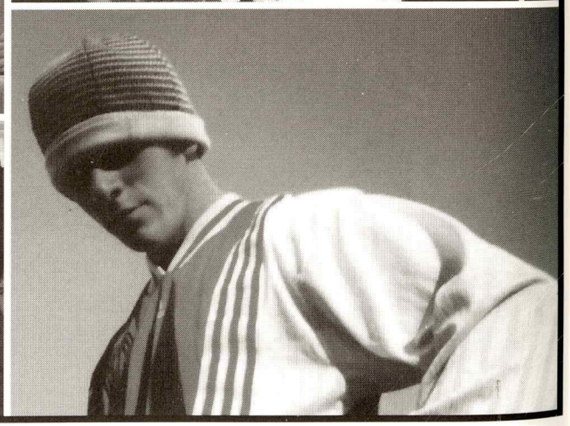


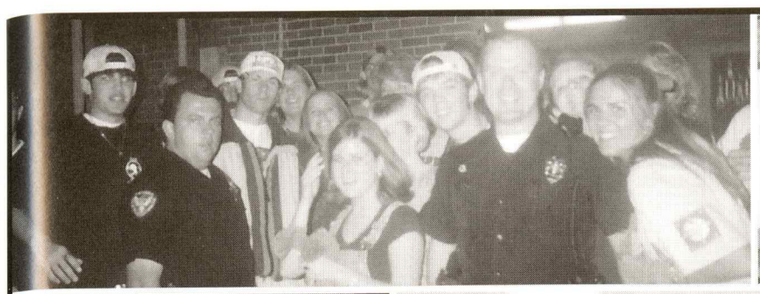


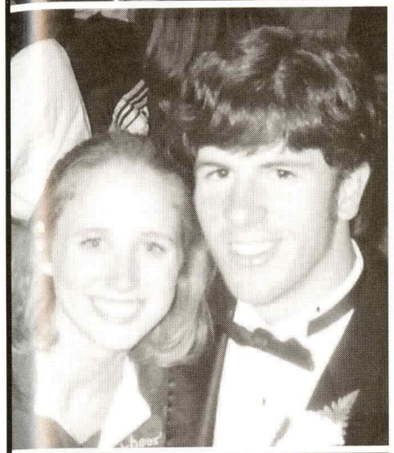


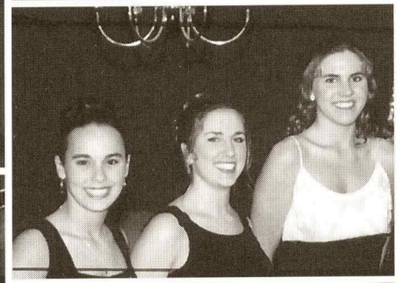


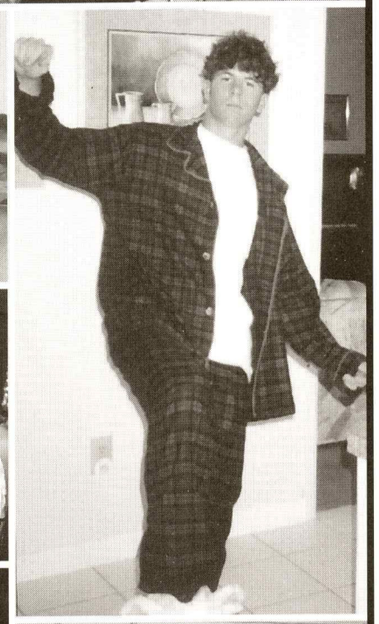


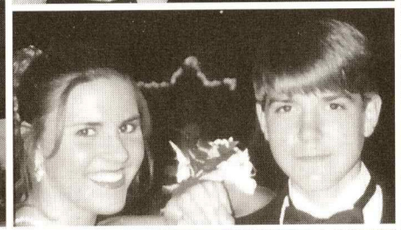


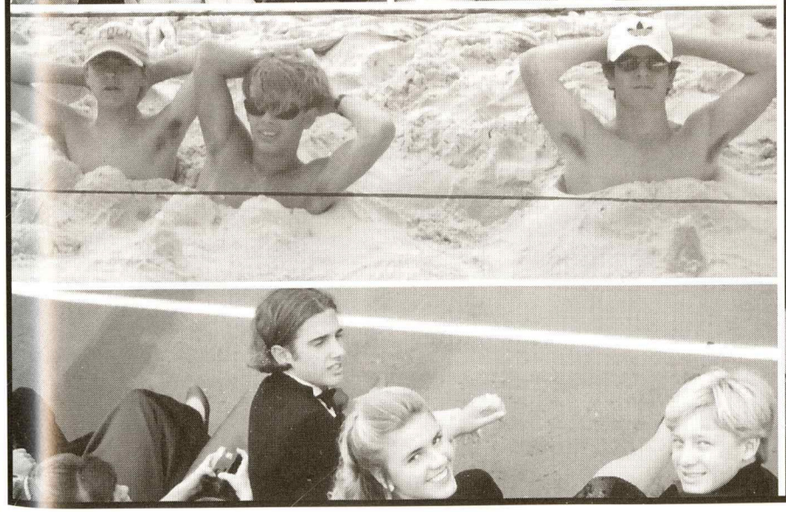


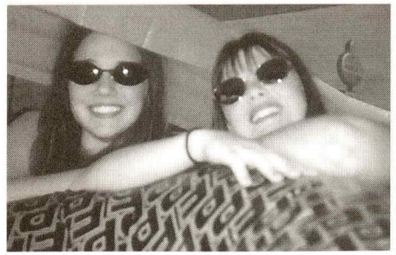


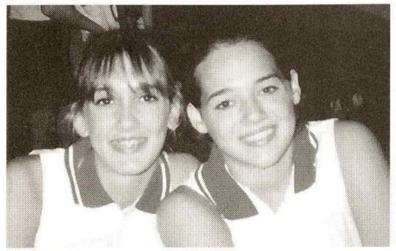


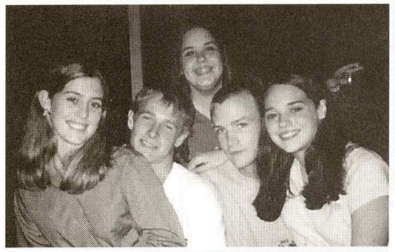


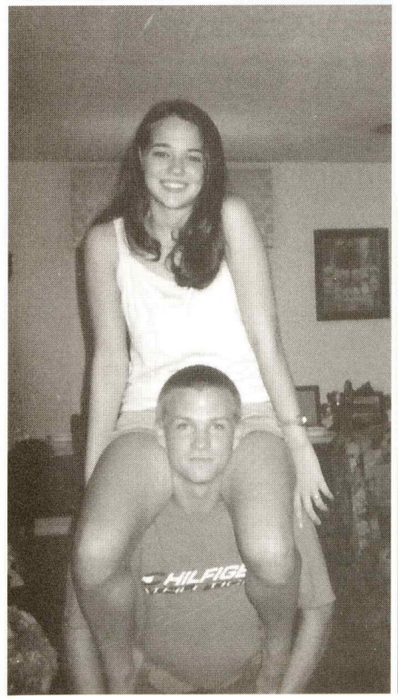


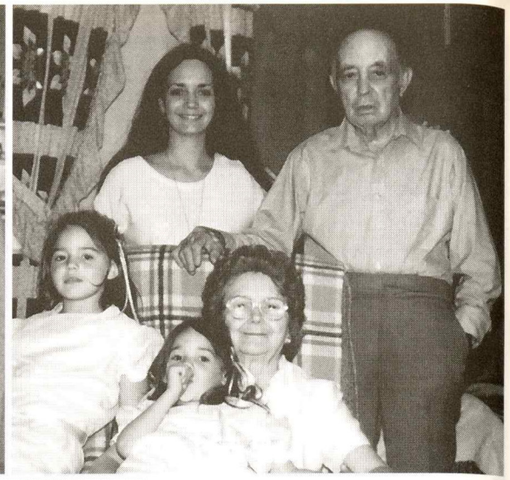


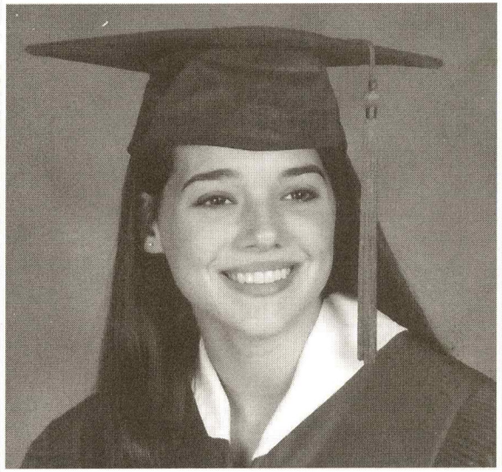








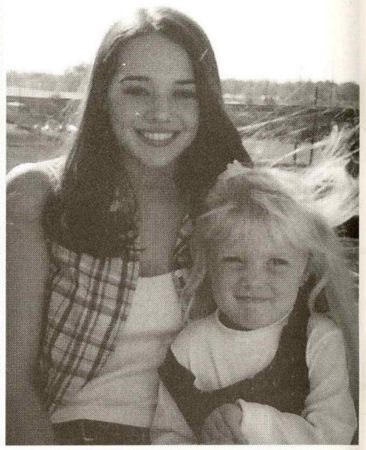


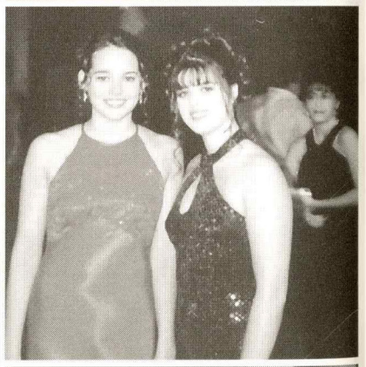


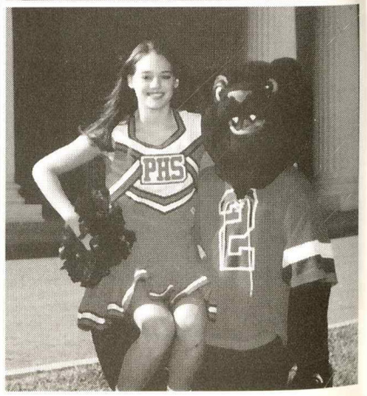
Congratulations, Rachel!!

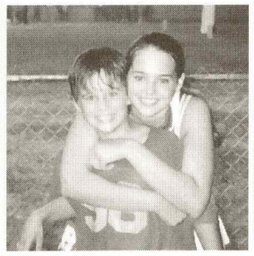
We are so proud of you!
We wish you the best!

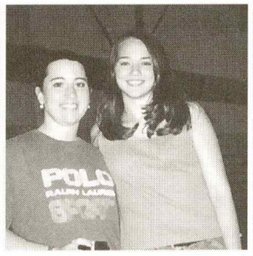
Love,
Mom, Amber and Patrick

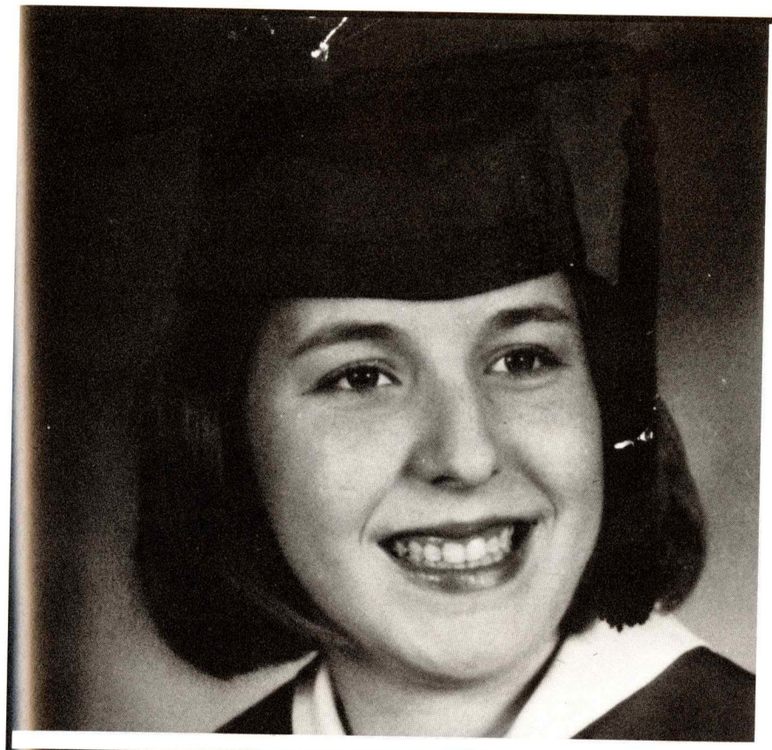












CONGRATULATIONS CHRISTY!

We love you and we're very proud of you!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Lisa

One Way - This Way

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. Rom. 3:23

For the wages of sin is death. Rom. 6:23

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Rom. 10:9

That if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved. Rom. 10:9

Prayer: Jesus, I know I am a sinner and need your forgiveness. I now turn from my sins and ask you into my life to be my Savior and Lord. Forgive my sins and give me your gift of eternal life. Thank you for dying for me and saving me.

"I am the Way the Truth and the Life." John 14:6

Everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Rom. 10:13

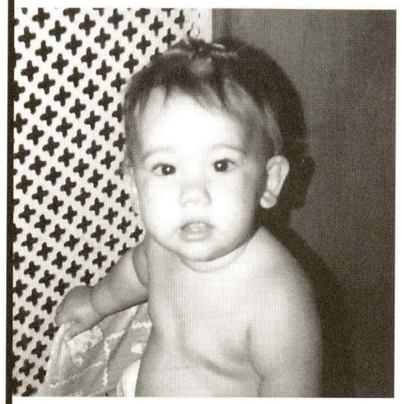
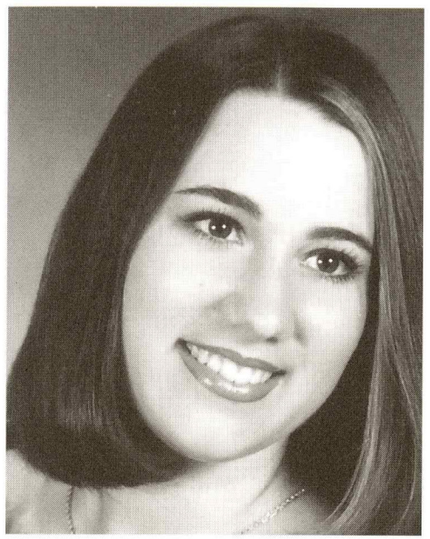
To Our Daughter, Kristy

Since you were born you have been such a beautiful addition to our family. Now that you are growing up we can see that you are a beautiful addition to the world and we are so proud of you. As we watch you doing things on your own, we know you will find happiness and success because we are confident in your ability, your self-knowledge, and your values. If you ever need a boost or just someone to talk to about difficulties that might be occurring, we are always here to help you, understand you, support, and love you.





Stephanie-
Congratulations to you on your graduation! We wish you luck and happiness as you begin your next journey through life. Remember your family is forever here for you!

With all our love,

Go #62

WHERE THE SIDEWALK ENDS

There is a place where the sidewalk ends
And before the street begins,
And there the grass grows soft and white,
And there the sun burns crimson bright
And there the moon-bird rests from his flight
To cool in the peppermint wind.

Let us leave this place where the smoke blows black
And the dark street winds and bends.
Past the pits where the asphalt flowers grow
We shall walk with a walk that is measured and slow,
And watch where the chalk-white arrows go
To the place where the sidewalk ends.

Yes we'll walk with a walk that is measured and slow,
And we'll go where the chalk-white arrows go,
For the children, they mark, and the children, they know
The place where the sidewalk ends.
